NEW FILM SERIES AT THE HIRAM HALLE LIBRARY

The Hiram Halle Memorial Library has begun an exciting new film series on Friday evenings, featuring extraordinary films that you may have missed or would like to see again. The film series will be presented by long-time film buff Norman Senior, and each series of films will focus on a central theme. The theme for the spring series will be “Irish Tales and Storytelling” and will feature the following films:

Friday, April 11 – The Secret of Roan Inish, a purely magical film by John Sayles
This movie is the tale of a girl whose search for her missing brother brings an Irish legend to life. It will be a treat for all ages.

Friday, May 9 – The Dead, an interesting film which takes place in Dublin in 1904
Donald McCann and Anjelica Huston star in this remarkable movie based on the short story by James Joyce. This film involves poignant memories and celebrates time, place, and atmosphere.

Friday, June 6 – This Is My Father, a moving and romantic drama by Paul Quinn
This movie features an all-star cast headed by Aidan Quinn and James Caan. It is a deeply touching film with superb acting.

We invite you all to join us in this new adventure @ your library.
