

THE ADULT LEARNING CENTER OF THE HIRAM HALLE LIBRARY PRESENTS A NEW COURSE

IN A WESTERN VOICE

A vital literature has emerged from the American West that has nothing to do with saloons, horses, gold, duels, cowboys and rough-house. There are 19th and 20th century writers, rooted in a region of the U.S., who comment on the human condition – authors who speak to the whole literary world from their unique geographic setting.

INSTRUCTOR: BETTY STRAUS

READINGS

- Sep. 14 Willa Cather A Lost Lady; Paul's Case; The Sculptor's Funeral
- Oct. 5 David Guterson Snow Falling on Cedars
- Oct. 26 Tony Hillerman Coyote Waits
- Nov. 16 Louise Erdrich Love Medicine: New and Expanded Version
- Dec. 7 Ethan Canin Blue River; selections from Emperor of the Air: Stories

Fridays 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon
Open to all adult learners.
Fee $80
To register, call (914) 764-5085

HIRAM HALLE LIBRARY
POUND RIDGE

