

Important Changes You Should Know About Long Term Care

Thursday, October 18, 7:30pm

If you have been counting on Medicaid to pay for your Long Term Care, it's time to think again! The new law, the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, makes it more difficult to get Medicaid. Learn how you can protect 100% of your assets while remaining Medicaid eligible. This seminar will be conducted by a Long Term Care Specialist licensed by the State of NY and certified by:

THE NEW YORK STATE PARTNERSHIP FOR LONG TERM CARE

If you have been counting on Medicaid to pay for your long term care, it's time to think again! The new law, the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, makes it more difficult to get Medicaid.

With new plans available under the New York State Partnership for Long-Term Care, many people will be able to provide for their own care without the need for impoverishment and total dependency on Medicaid.

Attend a free seminar at the Hiram Halle Memorial Library on Thursday, October 18, 2007 at 7:30 pm. The workshop will be conducted by a Long Term Care Specialist licensed by the State of New York and certified by the New York State Partnership Program.
